

fall
movie
guide

SKIN October 30

In an unimaginable true story examining racial identity, Sophie Okonedo plays Sandra Laing, a Black woman raised by her biological White Afrikaner parents in apartheid-era South Africa. Okonedo—in her first leading role—takes you on a turbulent journey filled with rejection, betrayal and reconciliation.

PRECIOUS: BASED ON THE NOVEL "PUSH" BY SAPPHIRE November 6

Mo'Nique's impressive performance as an abusive mother in Precious may give her the golden touch for an Oscar. She joins Paula Patton, Mariah Carey and newcomer Gabourey "Gabby" Sidibe in the harrowing-yet-redemptive tale of an illiterate teen who struggles to overcome sexual and physical abuse at the hands of her mother and father.

MORE THAN A GAME October 9

In this documentary, future NBA superstar LeBron James and his four best friends (dubbed the Fab Five) recall their emotional ride to overcome adversity, become national high school champs, and forge James's ultimate road to fame.

LAW ABIDING CITIZEN October 16

Jamie Foxx, as a hotshot Philadelphia lawyer, is challenged to change the legal system when a family guy turned sociopath orchestrates a series of killings after his wife and daughter are brutally murdered.

WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE October 16

Academy Award winner Forest Whitaker takes a walk on the wild side lending his voice to Ira, a mystical creature in the movie adaptation of the classic children's tale. —Maya Pope-Chappell

OKONEDO, UMBERTO ADAGI, JAMES, COURTESY OF LIONSGATE; FOX, OVERTURE FILMS/COURTESY OF NEAL PETERS COLLECTION; WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE FILM STILL, WARNER BROS./COURTESY OF EVERETT COLLECTION; WHITAKER, PHIL MCCARTEN/REUTERS/CORBIS; MO'NIQUE, LIONSGATE/COURTESY OF NEAL PETERS COLLECTION.