CLICS: Intra-CUNY Borrowing

Can’t find the book you want at the Graduate School of Journalism?

Get it delivered from another CUNY library using the Request button in the CUNY+ online catalog. The book will be delivered for pickup to your CUNY library of choice. You’ll get an e-mail within a few days telling you that the book is ready, and you’ll have 10 days to pick it up. Here’s how:

- Search the CUNY+ online catalog

• Click on Title Request in the menu bar

• Log in to My Account in CUNY+ with your CUNY library barcode number and password (barcode number is password until you change it)
• Select your pickup library and not needed after date

• Check the next screen for your book record and pickup library; delete and retry, if necessary

• Log out of your CUNY+ My Account to protect your privacy

• A few days later, you’ll receive e-mail that your book is available to pick up

• Renew books online through your CUNY+ My Account

• Return books to any CUNY library circulation desk or book drop

• Keep your e-mail address current with your home library’s circulation desk

• Request only books going from one library to another; there is no in-library paging service
Loan periods, renewal policies, fines, fees, and notice schedules vary among CUNY libraries. Check the Web sites of individual libraries for circulation information.
